What is NYLT? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Not like camp• Leadership course• Presentations, activities, overnight outpost• Lots of fun!	National Youth Leadership Training, according to the BSA is: “...an exciting, action-packed program designed for councils to provide youth members with leadership skills and experience they can use in their home troops and in other situations demanding leadership of self and others. NYLT delivers advanced leadership skills while further developing the skills introduced in ILST, ILSC, and ILSS. NYLT delivers the skills through a combination of formal youth to youth presentations and hands-on, experiential learning by modeling a month in the life of a Scouting unit. Youth who function in leadership roles in their troop, crews, or ships will benefit from the experiences developed in this course..” Some NYLT activities take place indoors with presentations while others take place outdoors. There is an overnight campout, campfires, chapel service and a few more surprises! Some of the topics we will cover include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Communicating Well• Finding Your Vision<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Planning Campfires• Setting Goals• Solving Problems• Resolving Conflict• Leading Yourself• Servant Leadership

	drugs/alcohol/tobacco, or any other unsafe, illegal, or un-Scout like thing. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do not bring your merit badge sash or any recognition beads that you earned in your Troop. You will not need them and they can get lost or damaged. • Be prepared for an overnight hike (backpack tent) as well as the week in base camp (Siblings will NOT be in the same patrol and therefore not able to share a tent.)
Uniform At NYLT, we always wear the field uniform or the activity uniform. (We often interchange the terms “Class A” and “Class B” for “Field” and “Activity”.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Uniform expectations 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Arrive at NYLT registration in your full field (Class A) uniform. (Do not wear sash/neckerchief) The field uniform: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scouts: NYLT hat; official BSA short-sleeve shirt with correct patches; BSA green shorts; BSA belt and buckle; BSA uniform socks (Either new or older style official BSA shirt, shorts & socks are fine.) • Venturers: NYLT hat; official green uniform shirt with correct patches; and gray pants/shorts of appropriate length; BSA belt and buckle; BSA uniform socks • Sea Scouts: NYLT hat; official blue uniform shirt with correct patches; and dress jeans/jean shorts of appropriate length. (dark gray/black shorts can be substituted for field uniform during this course.) BSA Belt and buckle The activity uniform is the same, except NYLT T-shirt is worn instead of the BSA shirt. NYLT Activity T-shirts will be provided at registration, as well as the NYLT course hat. These will be their Activity Uniforms for the week.
Medications <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • expectations 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We generally expect Scouts to be able to take their own medications and keep track of them personally. NYLT is a very busy course for the adult and youth staff (we frequently go to bed much later than the Scouts as we prepare for the upcoming day’s activities), and we cannot be responsible for medication schedules and administration. • Exception is if the Scout is on a Controlled Narcotic prescription – this will need to be kept under adult supervision/medical office.

Graduation & Feast <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expectations & requirements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Feast will be Sat @ 5:00 pm on the last day of the course at the Dining Tents (Outside of the Dining Hall) Parents/Guardians encouraged to attend • Graduation will be on the last day of the course, Saturday July 30th, 2022 at 6:00 pm.
